USPA NEWS - Michel Zecler, who happened to be a French Afro citizen, has declared to have, himself, police friends and made the share of things and does not want to generalize on the police officers, in front of the violence to which he was the object. He declares in front of the microphones of the press "Yes I was afraid, because in my opinion the police officers are there to protect us"
French President Emmanuel Macron said in a statement on his Facebook page that images of a Black man being beaten up by Paris police were “shameful“ for France. He also said he had asked the government to come up with proposals to restore the public´s confidence in the police and to fight against all forms of discrimination.The images we have all seen of Michel Zecler's assault are unacceptable. They shame us. France must never resolve to violence or brutality, wherever it comes from. France must never allow hatred or racism to flourish. » the President Macron Sated, after viewing the video footage of Michel Zecler´s molesting by policemen.

THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR ASKS FOR THE DISMISSAL OF THE THREE POLICEMEN ----------The Minister of the Interior, Gerald Darmanin, guest of the 8:00 p.m. of France 2, announced that he would ask for "the dismissal" of the police, "as soon as the facts are established by justice". He accused them of having "soiled the uniform of the Republic". In a rare public statement, the Paris prosecutor Remy Heitz wanted the IGPN, seized of the file, to investigate "as quickly as possible". "This is an extremely important matter for me and which I have been following personally since Saturday," he told AFP. Several relatives of the President of the Republic expressed their indignation on Twitter. And this Friday morning the Elysee said that Emmanuel Macron was "very shocked" by the video. The President received Gerald Darmanin on Thursday before he went to France 2 at 8 p.m. and asked him to pronounce very clear sanctions against the police.
