Youth Jam

Georgetown, Penang, 07.07.2013, 14:49 Time

USPA NEWS - Youth Jam is making its comeback this year with a bang! This annual event is created by youths for youths in hopes of educating, motivating and inspiring them with the experience that they gain form it.

Youth Jam 2013 will be launched in July and this year, not only will Youth Jam be in collaboration with youths from all over Penang but we are spreading the Youth Jam fever across Kuala Lumpur and Perak. The Concept of Youth Jam is to merge different projects (e.g. competitions, conferences, seminars, etc.) together into one large event. These projects consist of mainly four difference educational division - entrepreneurship, IT, sports and creative arts. There will be 10 youth project in total this year and the youths behind the best project will be awarded.

Youth Jam 2013 Penang will be held on the 7th of July 2013 which is the International Heritage Celebration Day with conjunction of Georgetown Festival 2013. While Youth Jam 2013 Perak will be held on 27th of July 2013 and Youth Jam 2013 Kuala Lumpur will be held on 7th September 2013. All three of Youth Jams will begin at 10am to 10pm. With that being said, Youth Jam 2013's main objectives are to bridge the gaps between urban and rural youths and to ignite the passion for entrepreneurship, IT and creative arts among youths so that a K-Generation Group be created. With to total of five thousand youths attend Youth Jam 2013 at Penang Time Square today!
